

Mental Health, Psychiatric Medication and the Law

Education Day Presented by Patients Rights Advocacy

DVD Presentations from the ICSP (International Center for the Study of Psychiatry and Psychology) "The Conscience of Psychiatry" Conference 2006

Saturday 29th November 2008, 9.15–5.00 pm

Room 4, Johnsonville Community Centre, 3 Frankmoore Avenue

This is an opportunity for health and law professionals, policy makers, law enforcement personnel, patients, family members and others concerned with the human and environmental impact of prescription drugs on individuals, families and communities.

Programme:

The Law and Psychiatric Drugs: Strengths, Weaknesses, and Experience

Graham Dukes, MD, author of The Law and Ethics of the Pharmaceutical Industry

International Human Rights and Civil Disability Cases

Michael Perlin, J.D. author of The Hidden Prejudice: Mental Disability on Trial and New York Law School professor

Medication Spellbinding, Iatrogenic Anosognosia: A New Concept

Peter Breggin, MD, founder of ICSP, noted psychiatrist and author of numerous scientific publications and books including Toxic Psychiatry and Talking Back to Prozac

What Happens When the 1st Amendment Butts Heads with Special Interests

Stefan Kruszewski, MD, psychiatrist of conscience, was fired by the Pennsylvania Department of Public Welfare, Bureau of Program Integrity after uncovering fiscal and pharmaceutical corruption and patient abuse

SSRIs, Akathisia, and Suicidality: The History of the FDA's 2005 Black Box Warning on Antidepressant-Induced Suicidality

Joseph Glenmullen, MD, Harvard Medical School, author of Prozac Backlash and The Antidepressant Solution

A Coordinated Campaign to Successfully Change the Mental Health System

James Gottstein, J.D. President and CEO of the Law Project for Psychiatric Rights (PsychRights)

Parens Patriae, Parens Inscius: Beware the Dangers of the Incompetent State

Grace Jackson, MD, author of Rethinking Psychiatric Drugs: A Guide to Informed Consent

REGISTRATION

Name _____

Address _____

Email _____

Phone _____

Please post details and cheque for $30.00 (morning, afternoon tea and lunch included) to:
Patient Rights Advocacy, PO Box 13 823, Johnsonville, Wellington 6440

For more information contact Rose at epirose@gmail.com or 021 0480 478, or Patients Rights Advocacy Liaison Officer Anna de Jonge at rens.dej@clear.net.nz or 07 843 5837
Web site: <http://prawi.sartorelli.gen.nz>